By putting yourself last and Jesus first, with others in between, it brings real joy.

This weeks project is another fun way to reach lives and add joy to others.

You can buy candy canes in your local supermarket or dollar store. They even have mini ones. They come in every flavor now!

You can print the little picture above and attach it to a candy cane and pass them out at work Christmas party, school, your neighbors or family party.

No matter what way you share this sweet treat – the J candy will stand for Joy you are sharing with those you meet this week! Enjoy.
